

Additional Educational Opportunities

Summary

The university's policy on educational opportunities available to employees through the Turner Center, Computer Information and Networking Services, and the Education Technology Center.

Purpose

To provide guidance to employees on additional educational opportunities available to them.

Policy

Continuing education courses are available through the Division of Continuing and Regional Education Services located in the Elizabeth Bradley Turner Center. In some instances, fees may be discounted. Other educational opportunities include computer training offered through Computer Information and Networking Services and the Education Technology Center.

Related USG Policy

N/A

Last Update

6/5/18

Responsible Authority

CSU Human Resources