

Unemployment Compensation

Summary

The university's policies pertaining to unemployment compensation.

Purpose

To provide guidance to employees on unemployment compensation.

Procedure

Columbus State University employees, with the exception of student employees and graduate assistants, are covered under the Georgia Employment Security Law, commonly referred to as Unemployment Compensation. The law was enacted to provide a source of security when employees become unemployed through no fault of their own. The local office of the Georgia Department of Labor (DOL) determines eligibility for benefits upon termination. Employees should obtain a completed Separation Report from the Human Resources Department to notify the DOL of the terms of the separation.
