Tower Day Student Resources

Undergraduates from all disciplines are encouraged to submit proposals online to present research, scholarly activities, and creative endeavors.

Prior to submitting your proposal, you should review the Tower Day Application Guide, past abstracts, previous programs, award-winning presentations, and poster guidelines and examples to better understand the scope and the depth of the presentations. You will need to submit the following information during the online process, much of which may be cut or pasted from text documents:

Required Information:

- Abstract Title
- Abstract (250-word limit)
- Mode of Presentation (e.g., Poster, 15-minute presentation, short film, performance, visual art display)
- Equipment needs (e.g., DVD, PowerPoint)
- Full names, email addresses and academic level of all student collaborators
- Full names and email addresses of all co-presenters (2 maximum)
- Full names of all faculty mentors

Other Information

(The following responses will not impact whether or not your project is selected for Tower Day)

- If the project originated as a class assignment, the course name, and number (e.g. PSYC 4125)
- If the project has been previously presented, published or received an award, you'll need names, dates and/or journal citations.
- If the project was funded by the grants, source type and amount.
