Konan Language Learning Center

Administered by the Department of Modern & Classical Languages, the Konan Language Learning Center is open to all CSU students and faculty, and available by reservation for groups and departments that share an interest in learning about other cultures. The LLC is an active learning and technology enhanced academic support facility where faculty and students have access to and support for language learning software, language placement exams, and computer aided translation (CAT) tools. The following services and capabilities are available to anyone wanting to work on their language skills: Listening/recording/viewing stations, Video library, Internet access, laptops with headset access, and interpreters' booth with dual console and 30 receivers for instantaneous interpretations. The LLC strives to be a dedicated space for faculty led language and culture activities or student independent study.

The Konan Language Learning Center is located in Howard Hall, room 107.
