
Student Organizations

Columbus State University and the Turner College of Business & Technology are dedicated to preparing students for the real world. This is accomplished through classroom experiences as well as extracurricular activities. Listed below are a few student groups created to help prepare business students for today's working world.

Business Organizations

Accounting Club

American Marketing Association

Beta Gamma Sigma

Finance Club

Student Advisory Committee (SAC)

Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM)