

Admissions for Adult Learners

Undergraduate Admissions Admissions for Adult Learners

An adult learner is a student who:

- Has graduated five or more years ago from high school (or your high school class must have graduated at least five years ago)
- Holds a high school diploma from an accredited or approved high school OR has satisfactorily completed the GED
- (Non-traditional Freshman must) have earned fewer than 30 transferable semester college credit hours.

Institutional Requirements

- Final high school transcript (showing a date of graduation)
- Official GED scores if applicable
- Official transcript(s) from previous institutions with a 2.0 GPA minimum
