

Black Alumni Council

Mission

CSU Black Alumni Council is an official affinity group for black graduates of Columbus State University. Through recruiting, retaining, engaging, donating, and serving, BAC connects alumni and students with shared experiences to continue building a welcoming and supportive campus Community.

History

Established in 2019, the Black Alumni Council is the affinity group of the CSU Alumni Association for black graduates. Through recruiting, retaining, engaging, donating, and serving, BAC connects alumni and students with shared experiences to continue building a welcoming and supportive campus community. Each year, the Black Alumni Council hosts Sips Before Steps, a reception prior to the Homecoming Step Show and other networking events for graduates.
