

About

Established in 1975, the Archives serves as a repository for materials documenting the history of Columbus State University and the greater Chattahoochee Valley region. The mission of the CSU Archives and Special Collections is to support education and research by collecting, preserving, and providing access to historical and cultural material about Columbus State University, the city of Columbus, and the surrounding Chattahoochee Valley.

- Contact Us
- Hours
- Directions
- Volunteering and Internships
- Donating