

Columbus Public Library Pamphlet Collection (MC 302)

Scope and Content

This pamphlet collection came to the CSU Archives when the Columbus Public Library closed its archival collection and donated it to the CSU Archives in September 2013. It was previously labeled MC 081 Pamphlet Collection in their collection. The collection now consists of four boxes divided by series of a variety of items that relate to the social, political, economic, and cultural history of the Chattahoochee Valley area.

The pamphlet collection is divided into two series. Series 1 contains items that relate to Columbus and the area politically, economically and socially. Series 2 represents pamphlets and materials that are of especial historical significance to the Columbus area, including many with photographs.

1828-2010 4 boxes (1.33 l.f.)

Provenance

The pamphlet collection was donated by the director of the Columbus Public Library in the fall of 2013 when the public library closed its archival collection.
