

Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III Papers (MC 390)

Biographical Note

These papers reflect the activities and history of the Hardaway family of Columbus, Georgia. These papers primarily concern Benjamin Hurt Hardaway, Senior (1866-1928), his son Benjamin Hurt Hardaway, Junior (1891-1963) and his son, Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III (1919-2017), but also include significant materials on earlier members of both the Hardaway and related families

Benjamin Hurt Hardaway was one of the sons of Robert Archelaus Hardaway (1829-1899) and his wife Rebecca (Beca) Hurt Hardaway (1837-1887). This collection also relates very closely to the papers of Robert Early Hardaway (MC 256), who also descended from Robert Archelaus Hardaway. The bulk of this material, however, relates to Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III.

Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III was born on September 28, 1919 in Columbus, Georgia and died there on October 29, 2017. He married Sarah McDuffie in 1945. They had four daughters. He was one of three children born to Benjamin Hurt Hardaway Jr. (1891-1963) and his wife Louise Buttolph Hardaway (1893-1977).

Benjamin H. Hardaway III (BHH III) was a businessman, banker, horseman, sportsman, and philanthropist. He graduated from Columbus High School in 1936, attended VMI (class of '40), served in the U.S. Army during World War II and was among those who landed on Omaha Beach on D-Day. He served as an aide-de-camp to Lt. General Manton S. Eddy. After the war, he returned to his home in Columbus and assumed his part in running the family businesses, including the Hardaway Construction Company and the local Ford dealership, as well as serving on the boards of various banks and businesses, including the Royal Crown Cola Corporation. He was also a member of the Rotary Club, the Chamber of Commerce and many sports-related organizations, including the Wildlife Legislative Fund, the Wildlife Conservation Fund, Masters of Foxhounds of America, and many others. He also supported such diverse causes as the U.S. Equestrian Team, the National Infantry Museum, and many pro-hunting and pro-trapping lobbying organizations. He was an active member of Saint Paul's Methodist Church.

Scope and Content

These papers document primarily the life and activities of Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III but also cover other members of his family across a wide range of interests. Present are diaries of several family members, daily itineraries of meetings and travel, photographs, publications, personal and financial records, as well as charitable and sporting activities.

Box List

Series 1 - Daybooks, Journals, Diaries and Daily Planners

These "diaries" take many forms and had several functions. Some are agendas, where social and business appointments were noted. Some are business workbooks, where the activities of the various Hardaway business were tracked, including information on bids received and offered, expenses, income, etc. Some are personal diaries that focused more on social and family activities. Some are yearly and some are monthly. There are some years that have multiple "diaries" where personal and business activities are kept separate, and in some years they are mixed. For the sake of convenience they are all referred to "Diary" in this finding aid. There is also overlap between the life-spans of the three men whose diaries we have and it is possible that some of the unsigned ones may have been placed with the wrong person. This series also includes a Rolodex and several address books, all apparently belonging to Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III.

Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III (1919-2017)- Diaries and Daily Planners

From 1957-2004, Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III used pocket-sized monthly notebooks, labelled "diaries", as his daily planners and they comprised a rough draft of his days. From 1998 through 2016 he also used a commercially printed daily planner. These may have been created by his secretary. These might contain notes on his business activities, civic and philanthropic meetings, cost estimates for bidding on construction jobs, purchases of hunting dogs or horses, hunting trips, phone numbers, doctor's appointments, meals, parties, wines, notes about banking and business, addresses, telephone numbers, anniversaries and birthdays, Christmas and birthday gifts, and anything else of note for that day.

Series 4 - Personal

This series contains materials relating to BHH III's activities apart from his business and sporting interests. These include his church involvement; non-sporting events, philanthropies, genealogy, and general correspondence.

Correspondence

[Processor's note: Included here are letters from a box called "Old Letters". These included letters that predate the time of Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III. They are to and from members of various Hardaway and related families. Those that can be identified are filed by family name, and thereunder chronologically. Unidentified ones are arranged chronologically, if dated. Unidentified, undated and partial letters are filed at the end of the Clark/Pegram/Money folders.]

Series 4 - Box 1

Folder 1 - Clark/Pegram Family Letters, 1808-1815 These letters were to and from various members of the Clark family, including Maryanne F. Pegram Clark (1795-1881); her father, Edward Pegram (1775-1814); her brothers, Baker and Joseph Pegram; her husband Thomas Clark (1784-1849); her father-in-law, William Clark; and others. There are also letters from various nieces, nephews and other family and friends. Mary Pegram Clark was a great-great grandmother of Rebecca Money Hardaway.

Folder 21 - nd

Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III/Sarah McDuffie Hardaway

The BHH III correspondence is by far the most voluminous and covers a wide variety of subjects. They were generally left as found. In a few cases, however, materials were moved to other existing folders. Topics include: thank-you notes; holiday and birthday cards; invitations; health; the Infantry Museum; books; church activities; the documentary and book about his life (Never Been Outfoxed); newspaper and magazine articles; vacations; birthdays; hunting and anti-hunting issues. There is significant overlap with materials relating to the Midland Foxhounds, as well as some overlap with the Itineraries and Genealogy files. The correspondence reflects the extremely peripatetic nature of this generation of Hardaways, but there is a certain rhythm to their year. The year began with January's annual Masters of Foxhounds Association gala in New York City with concurrent attendance at the annual meeting of the Moles (an engineering organization), followed by the annual meeting of the Alfalfa Club in Washington, D.C. Then would follow an annual fox hunt in Virginia with a concurrent meeting of the Wildlife Legislative Fund/Wildlife Conservation Fund, usually in April, then a summer vacation in the highlands of North Carolina, grouse hunting in England in August, and in later years the Columbus Steeplechase and the Upatoi Polo Games to end the year. In between these recurring events were visits to family and friends, many hunting trips involving foxes, cats, and birds, as well as fishing trips, among many other interests.

Folder 22 - General Manton S. Eddy Materials, 1942-1945 This folder contains the diary of Lt. General Manton S. Eddy from December 12, 1942 through January 5, 1943, which were in an envelope from the Miehle Publishing Company addressed to Mrs. M.S. Eddy at Hardaway Hall, c/o Benjamin Hardaway and postmarked March 2, 1943. Also included is a note from the Chef du Territoire de Port-Lyautey to General Eddy dated January 1, 1943. [Processor's note-related photographs are located in Series 10-Photographs.]

Allenheads Syndicate

The syndicate was made up of from 10 to 20 individuals who rented the estate of Wentworth Hubert Charles Beaumont, 3rd Viscount Allendale (12 September 1922 - 27 December 2002) to hunt grouse for two weeks each fall, while living in the manor house, Allenhead Hall. Lord Allendale was known as "Wenty". In later years of the syndicate, the arrangements were managed by Lord Allendales' son and heir, also known as "Wenty". Members could opt to stay either one week or for both weeks and their dues were based on the length of their stay. BHH III participated in these hunts from 1962 through 1992 and was the head of the syndicate from 1981 through 1991. These materials document the membership, dues collection, payments to Lord Allenhead and his staff, and indicates how many grouse were killed and by whom over the 30 years that the syndicate operated. Besides correspondence with members concerning dues, dates, logistics, etc., there is also extensive correspondence with Allenhead Hall staff, the Connaught Hotel and other lodgings, wine and food shops in the village of Hexham, etc. Letters signed "Podge" are from Patricia Blundell-Brown.

Series 6 - Box 3 - Recurring Sport-Related Events and Organizations (M-U)Midland Fox Hounds

The following is taken verbatim from the website of the Midland Fox Hounds:

The Midland Fox Hounds was organized right after World War II and recognized by the Masters of Foxhounds Association in 1950. Benjamin H. Hardaway, III and Dr. Jack C. Hughston were elected Joint Masters with Ben Hardaway acting as huntsman. The pack at first consisted of July hounds that Ben had since a teenager. The hunt was given considerable support by the officers at nearby Fort Benning, Georgia, who were deprived of their sport when the United States Army sold all of their horses in 1948 and the Infantry School Hunt was disbanded. The Midland Fox Hounds bought horses, saddles and pink coats from the Fort Benning dispersal. We still have the infantry blue as our hunt colors. From 1948 to the present, Midland has established hunt countries with varying terrain and hunting conditions in Georgia and Alabama. These are regularly hunted four days a week. For this incredible asset we are indebted to our gracious landowners. Ben Hardaway hunted the hounds for 45 years and gave up the horn to Mason Houghland Lampton in 1997. Since then Mason has carried on the same breeding regiment for blending the cry, nose and speed of the July foxhound with the tractability and confirmation of the English Fell foxhound. The Midland crossbred hounds have been drafted by many packs internationally as a source of the highest performance in hunting.

Series 7 - Travel Itineraries - BHH III

These documents include detailed itineraries for trips made by Benjamin Hurt Hardaway and his family. They may include destinations, pick-up and drop-off times, accommodations, topics of speeches made (if any), events attended, agendas, follow-up information, other participants/guests, relevant telephone numbers and addresses. Many have hand-written notes on the back of the printed sheets with changes to schedules and lists of participants. Duplicate materials, such as multiple copies of maps for hunts or travel brochures, were discarded. Materials were generally left as received. Materials related to individual events, such as MFHA Directors' meetings or shows, have been moved to Series 6 - Sports-Events.

Series 10 - Photographs

This series includes photographs of members of the various branches of the Hardaways, as well as photos collected by them for various reasons. Dates range from the 1860s to the 2015. Many are identified and/or dated, but many are not. There are some photographs in Series 4 (Personal-Correspondence) which are attached to letters. They were left as found. Photographic subjects include construction projects of the Hardaway Company dating to the late 19th and early 20th centuries, fishing trips, fox hunting, grouse hunting, World War I, World War II, Franklin Roosevelt, parties, vacations, and many shots of family members in both formal and informal poses. Large format photographs are filed with the Historic Photographs Collection, but have not yet been incorporated into the on-line data base. A few very large photographs are filed in the Hardaway drawer of over-sized material in the map cabinets.

Folder 1 - Major Robert Stanfield Hardaway (1797-1875), nd This is a photograph of an oil portrait of Robert S. Hardaway, who was born in Brunswick County Virginia on March 27, 1797 and died on Columbus, Georgia on April 20, 1875.

Folder 2 - Colonel Robert Archelaus Hardaway (1829-1999) and Rebecca Elizabeth Hurt Hardaway (1837-1887), 1860s-1890s There are several formal photographs of Robert A. Hardaway made from his 30s into his 50s. There is also an informal picture of a family outing about 1895 that includes his son, Benjamin Hurt Hardaway, Sr. and his family.

Folder 3 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway, Sr. (February 19, 1866-December 13, 1928) and Rebecca Money Hardaway (1865-1942), 1890s-1920s Also included in this folder are several photographs of the Hardaway children, Benjamin Hurt Hardaway Jr. (1891-1963) and Rebecca Money Hardaway (1890-1900). There are also some unidentified photographs, as well as one of a bull and an early automobile.

Folder 4 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway, Jr. (December 30, 1891-1963) and Louise Buttolph Hardaway, 1910s-1930s There are several formal portraits, such as BHH Jr in his Virginia Military Institute uniform, several in his World War I uniform, and a number of candid shots of Benjamin and Louise outdoors. Also included are photos of their three children: Benjamin Hardaway III, Sarah Peabody Hardaway Hughston and Rebecca Money Hardaway King. There is also a photograph of Franklin Roosevelt and others (including Hardaway) at the Callaway camp taken on March 19, 1937. There are also some dental x-rays.

Folder 5 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway, Jr. (December 30, 1891-1963) and Louise Buttolph Hardaway, 1940s-1960s Included in this folder are formal portrait photographs of Hardaway at various ages, as well as candid shots of fishing trips, and his being crowned as the King of Mardi Gras are at the Saint Francis Hospital fundraising event. 1940s-1960s

Folder 6 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III, 1916-early 1940s Most of these photographs are undated and unidentified, and have been grouped here based on subject matter, age of family members, and other factors. Included in this folder are: a studio portrait of Louise Buttolph Hardaway with her infant son made circa 1917; studio portraits of BHH III in his VMI uniform; a teen-aged BHH III holding a dead bob-cat made circa 1935; and three mounted photos of BHH III on horseback, probably made in the late 1930s or early 1940s. A large format photograph of BHH III is located in the Historic Photographs (but is not yet included in its on-line file).

Folder 7 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III-World War II, 1944-1945 These include items removed from an album of photographs taken during the last two years of World War II when BHH III served as an aide-de-camp to General Eddy, during which he earned both the Bronze and the Silver Star.

Folder 8 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III - World War II, 1944-1945 This folder contains mostly duplicates of the photos in the album mentioned above, but there is also a photograph of General Eisenhower, Winston Churchill, and General Eddy.

Folder 9 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III - World War II, 1944-1945 This folder contains yet more duplicates with a few not elsewhere printed of these years.

Folder 10 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III - World War II, 1944-1945 This folder contains smaller copies of the photographs in Folders 7-9, as well as the negatives for these prints. Several of these smaller copies are identified as to place and date and several have military classification information.

Folder 11 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III - Military Photographs, 1 February, 1947 This folder contains a booklet of photographs titled XII Corp: History Association, 1 February 1947, Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Folder 12 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III, late 1940s-1980s I This folder contains studio portraits, candid shots, passport photos, negatives and slides, mostly undated and unidentified. Subjects include: camping trips, hunting and fishing trips, parties, and negatives of the 1974 grouse shoot at Allenhead's and a puppy show in College Valley, England. There are also a couple of corporate board shots, one of his race horse, "Brace Actress", after a race at Keeneland in Lexington, KY in 1974 and several shots of fox hunts.

Folder 13 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III, 1940s-1980s II This folder has much the same type of material as the one above, also mostly undated and unidentified.

Folder 14 - Benjamin Hurt Hardaway III, 1980s-2015 This folder has much the same type materials as above, but also includes photos of the Hardaway's trip to Normandy to retrace BHH III's steps on D-Day.

Folder 15 - Benajamin Hurt Hardaway III-85th Birthday, September 2004

Folder 16 - Unidentified Hardaway Photographs, nd

Folder 17 - Hardaway Construction Company Photographs I These are mostly undated and unidentified, but some are such as: Anderson Dam; Chaba River; Muscogee County 1903-1904; Anderson, South Carolina; site of trestle for A.C.
