

Chattahoochee Valley Regional Library System (MC 405)

Organizational Note

The new Columbus Public Library, often referred to as the Main Library, is now located on Macon Road where once the Columbus Square Mall stood. Officials broke ground for the new main library building on April 24, 2003. This new building would replace the W.C. Bradley Memorial Library which was no longer adequate in size to serve the citizens of Columbus, Georgia.

Scope and Content

This text-sm collection consists of materials on the planning and construction of the new Columbus Public Library on Macon Road, part of the Chattahoochee Valley Regional Library System.
