

Taylor Family Diplomas (SMC 160)

Biographical Note

Angie Lena Taylor (4 November, 1903-24 November, 1996) and her sister Alice Mae Taylor (b. 1905) were born and raised in Columbus, Georgia. Both sisters graduated from Columbus High School and became teachers. Their parents were Lena Land Taylor and Thomas Kimbrough Taylor. The sisters had two brothers, Thomas K. Jr and Clay. The family had lived on Hamilton Rd, Nances, and 5th Avenue.

Angie married Ennis Davis, a veterinarian in Columbus, and is buried in Riverdale Cemetery in Columbus.

By the 1940 census, Alice Mae lived with her widowed mother. Alice remained single and taught school in Columbus her whole life.

Scope and Content

This text-sm collection is housed in the oversized drawer and consists of two of the sisters' diplomas. Alice Mae's was granted by Columbus High School in 1921. Angie Lena's was issued by the State Normal School for Teachers, University of Georgia, in 1924.

Permission to Publish

Permission to publish material from the Taylor Family Diploma Collection must be obtained from the Columbus State University Archives at Columbus State University. Use of the following credit line for publication or exhibit is required:

Taylor Family Diploma Collection (SMC 160) Columbus State University Archives Columbus, Georgia

Provenance

The two diplomas were donated to the Columbus State University Archives on July 3, 2019 by Jean Davis McWaters, a niece of the sisters.

Note to Researchers

See also: Columbus High School yearbook collection

Folder 1 -- oversize Columbus High School 1921 State Normal School 1924