

Proceedings and Papers of the Georgia Association of Historians

Vol. 12, 1991

Content	Page
FORWARD	vii
ARTICLES:
KEYNOTE ADDRESS	1
"The History of Public Education in Georgia" by Eugene P. Walker, DeKalb County School System and Georgia State Senate
"'Until Calm Reflection Should Take the Place of Wild Impulse': George E. Pickett and the Hanging at Kinston, North Carolina, February 1964" by Leslie Jill Gordon-Burr, University of Georgia	19
"Unassuming Valor: Sergeant William H. Carney and the Awarding of the Medal of Honor" by Curtis A. Mauldin, West Georgia College	46
"Critical Pedagogy: Briefs as a Social Science Instructional Tool" by Marva Strickland, Dekalb College	81
"Using Film to Teach the Vietnam War" by Richard F. Welch, Kennesaw State College	98
"Teaching the Vietnam War, a Critique" by Robert L. Patterson, Armstrong State College	115
"The Challenge of a Memoir in Biographical Research: Eugene Bullard's All Blood Runs Red" by Craig Lloyd, Columbus College	126
"The Rise and Fall of Convict Labor in the Central Georgia Lumber Industry" by Mary Ellen Wilson, Middle Georgia College	146
"Thomas Lee Bailey, a Small Town Editor in Middle Georgia During the Age of Progressivism" by Bernadette K. Loftin, Emerita, Middle Georgia College	174
"Renaissance Humanism and Free Will: Embracing the Risks of Freedom" by Ann T. Engram, Darton College	195
"John Locke as an Effective Defender of Liberty" by Isaiah Azariah, Albany State College	214

Content	Page
"A Japanophile's Approach to Aggression: William Castle and the Manchurian Crisis" by Barney J. Rickman, III, Valdosta State College	222
"Marx and Hicks on the Economic Stages of Human History: Explanations of the Strange Rise of an Economiclly Dynamic Society" by Daniel Klenbort, Morehouse College	224
"A Critique of the Articles by Rickman and Klenbort" by Edward S. Krebs, Georgia State University	245
"Resources and Strategies for Teaching About the Middle East, Panel Summary" by Robert Claxton, West Georgia College	248
ABSTRACTS
"The Great Gold Rush Revival: Georgia's Second Gold Rush" by David Williams, Valdosta State College	253
"Incorporating Vietnam into a World History Course" by Sylvia Krebs, DeKalb College	255
"American Methodists and Alcohol" by Raymond P. Cowan, DeKalb College	256
ARCHIVAL NOTES
Martin I. Elzy, Jimmy Carter Library	258
Richard B. Russell Memorial Library	259
Jimmy Carter Library	265
DOCTORAL DEGREES IN GEORGIA	268
Linda Piper, University of Georgia
APPENDIX
Officers of the Georgia Association of Historians	