

Proceedings and Papers of the Georgia Association of Historians

Vol. 14, 1993

Content	Page
ARTICLES
KEYNOTE ADDRESS
"The Future of the Past: Gender in the Rewriting of Southern History" by Nancy A. Hewitt, Duke University	1-11
"'To Integrate, Set Boys, Girls Apart?': The Desegregation of the Taylor County, Georgia, Schools" by Stanford M. Brown, University of Georgia	12-36
"Blacks in the Civilian Conservation Corps; Successful Despite Discrimination" by Ann M. Burkly, Kennesaw State College	37-45
"Soldiers with Empty Sleeves; The Minie Ball and Civil War Medicine" by Daphne L. Frick, Kennesaw State College	46-53
"Genteel Domesticity in the Postbellum South" by Cita Cook, West Georgia College	54-61
"Development of a Model for a Workshop on Teaching the Core" by Elsa A. Nystrom, Kennesaw State College	62-71
"A Civil War Feud: Jefferson Davis Versus Joseph E. Johnston" by Glen Moore, Auburn University	72-81
"Penitent Prostitutes: Redeemable Women in Eighteenth-Century" by James Stephen Taylor, West Georgia College	82-89
"Western Education and Women's Social Mobility in Cameroon" by Emmanuel N. Konde, Morehouse College	90-106
"Women in Politics in Africa: The Case of Liberia" by Augustine Konneh, Morehouse College	107-115
"Mortuary Rolls as a Source for Medieval Women's History" by Teresa Leslie, West Georgia College	116-124

Content	Page
"Telling Women's Lives: Oral History in the Women's History Class" by Suzanne Marshall, Jacksonville State University	125-130
"Simulations in the Teaching of Diplomatic and Military History" by Hubert P. van Tuyll, Augusta College	131-140
"Minor v. Happerett: A case of Women's Suffrage" by Eva D. Adams, Fort Valley State College	141-147
"What is Palestine?: History and Terminology" by Richard Bennett, Southern College of Technology	148-157
"The Personal Factor in the Negotiation of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty" by Fred R. van Hartesveldt, Fort Valley State College	158-168
ABSTRACTS	169-171
"Women in History: Closing the Gender Gap" by Florence Fleming Corley, Kennesaw State College
"The Carter Administration and Labor Law Reform" by Bill M. Kaylor, Georgia State University
"Falstaff: Nationalism's Tie to Character Formation in The Merry Wives of Winsor, Falstaff, and Sir John in Love" By Laura Gilstrap Musselwhite, Floyd College
"The Impact of Humanism on Girls' Education in Early Tudor England" by Laura Gilstrap Musselwhite, Floyd College
"A Day in the Life of Atlanta, June 16, 1938" by G. Noell Wannamaker, Georgia State University
ARCHIVAL NOTES	172-176
Martin I. Elzy, Jimmy Carter Library
Ingram Library, West Georgia College Myron W. House
Georgia Tech Library and Information Center, Archives and Records Management Department Ruth Hale
Southern Labor Archives, Georgia State University Robert C. Dinwiddie
DOCTORAL DEGREES IN GEORGIA	177-181
Linda Piper, University of Georgia, compiler
APPENDICES:

Content	Page
Minutes of the Twentieth Annual Meeting	182-184
Note on Authors	185-186
Officers of the Georgia Association of Historians	187