

Columbus State University Archives and Special Collections

Established in 1975, the Archives and Special Collections, located on the ground floor of the Simon Schwob Memorial Library, serves as a repository for materials documenting the history of Columbus State University and the city of Columbus as well as the broader Chattahoochee Valley area. Donations to our collections are welcomed, and potential donors should contact the archival staff. Please use the navigation menu to learn more about our collections and conducting local history research.

Using Our Collections

- About Our Collections
- Digital Archives
- Finding Aids
- Collections by Subject
- Search Our Collections

Connect with Us

Want to get involved with the Archives and Special Collections? There are many opportunities to connect with us such as volunteering, donating, or simply stopping by for a visit. You can also follow all of our latest news by following our Facebook page and registering for our Newsletter.

Updates to ArchivesSpace

We are currently migrating our collection data to a new collection management platform. You can begin searching our collections using the new ArchivesSpace system.

Focus on Military History

Over the past several years, we have been strategically emphasizing and cultivating our US Military History Program. Read more about our recent noteworthy acquisitions and other current projects related to military history.