

---

On-Campus Student Employment

Federal Work Study

Federal Work-Study offers on-campus employment for students with remaining financial need, allowing you to earn while building valuable skills. These positions are designed to support your academic journey, help cover educational expenses, and provide flexibility around your course schedule.

More about Federal Work Study

Student Assistants

Student Assistant roles provide paid opportunities across campus, giving you hands-on experience while contributing to your community. These positions are available to any student, regardless of financial need. Earnings can help with educational and personal expenses, making it easier to focus on your growth and success.

Search for Available Student Assistant Positions

Graduate Assistants

Graduate Assistantships offer financial support through on-campus roles in areas like research, teaching, labs, or administrative roles. In addition to a stipend, all graduate assistants receive a tuition waiver, helping reduce costs and giving you the resources to fully invest in your professional and academic development.

More about Graduate Assistantships