
Education Abroad Program Search

Columbus State University's study abroad program is a transformative experience that offers a wealth of benefits. It provides an opportunity to immerse yourself in a new culture, learn a new language, and gain a global perspective that is highly valued by employers. It also fosters personal growth by challenging you to step out of your comfort zone and adapt to new situations. By studying abroad, you'll make unforgettable memories, form lifelong friendships, and gain a deeper understanding of the world. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to enrich your education and broaden your horizons. Apply for a study abroad program at CSU today!

All students must be 18 years of age or older to participate in study abroad programs.

You are encouraged to contact the Center for Global Engagement for an advising appointment so a program can be found that suits your needs and academic goals. If you have any pre-existing condition(s), please consult the Center for Accommodation and Access, your physician, or counselor before applying to a program.