

COEHP Hall of Fame

The College of Education and Health Professions Hall of Fame is designated to honor those individuals who have an academic connection to Columbus State University and who have made an extraordinary contribution to education or health professions. Selection criteria is provided on the Hall of Fame nomination form.

The Center for Quality Teaching and Learning will receive nominations for election into the Hall of Fame. Nominations will be submitted on the form provided by that office by the designated date. The Selection Committee will review the nomination packets and vote on the nominations. Prospective inductees will be notified and presented a commemorative plaque at the awards ceremony. Inductee recognition will be displayed permanently in the College of Education and Health Professions.
