

Loudermilk Faculty Grant

The Loudermilk Grant awards money to support the professional growth of faculty. Money is set aside specifically for members of the English department. If you have a research or teaching project for which you would like to apply, please send a proposal to Dr. K. Seon Jeon. Your proposal should explain what that project is, how much money is required, and how that money will be spent. There is no specific application form for this. Your email will serve as your application. The grant favors proposals that will text-ig to scholarly publication, course development, or the revision of an existing course. The English Department's Scholarship and Awards Committee will review the proposals and make its decision by the beginning of November, 2021.

The deadline to apply for Spring 2022 is March 11, 2022.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.
