A Safe Learning Environment

The second largest city in Georgia, Columbus offers a safe, text-sm-town feel to our students. CSU is a highly-respected part of the Columbus community and our students are treated with respect, dignity, and enthusiasm throughout the area. And our growing international population means that you will find other students just like you, who are seeking a great education in an exciting, new culture.

A Great Value

We don't just offer a great education. We offer great value for your education. Tuition remains comparatively low at Columbus State and international students have many opportunities for academic, athletic, and financial assistance. More importantly, your CSU degree equips you with what you need to succeed beyond the classroom, wherever your life takes you.
