300013	Fall 2015	HIST-3129I	Winston Churchill's Wartime use of English Constitutional Law in Rhetoric	By reading and listening to the speeches given by Winston Churchill, I seek to explore how he uses law to explain why he believed the British should continue fighting in the war. I also want to understand how Churchill's listeners responded to his speeches to see if they agreed with his justification or if they had alternative reasons for supporting or opposing the war. A poster will also be completed to present at Tower Day.
