404094	Fall 2018	HIST 3555	Chicago 1968: Riot Responses	I will be examining Chicago in 1968 by analyzing then-mayor Richard Daley's responses to crises in the city, focusing on riots in the aftermath of Martin Luther King's assassination and the Democratic National Convention. I will write a paper that provides historical context for the events, and I will incorporate a large amount of primary source analysis of Daley's actions and media coverage of the events.
