

Membership – Corps of Instruction

Summary

Explanation of the responsibilities of the faculty.

Purpose

To provide direction to CSU faculty on professional responsibilities

Policy

III. Responsibilities of the Faculty

1. The faculty shall exercise responsibility within limits established by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia to promote the best interests of Columbus State University. Within these limits it shall generally concern itself with the consideration, formulation, review, and recommendation of policies and procedures designed to foster the proper growth and development of Columbus State University as an institution of higher education. Included is concern with policies relating to the academic program, faculty welfare, and student welfare.
2. The faculty normally shall exercise its advisory and legislative responsibilities through its representative, the Faculty Senate.
3. The faculty shall have the power to review all actions of the Faculty Senate as provided in Article VII, Section A, Paragraph 3.

https://faculty.columbusstate.edu/senate/fs_03_10_2014_3.pdf

Related USG Policy

3.2.1.1 Corps of Instruction

Last Update

3/10/2014

Responsible Authority

Associate Provost for Faculty & Judicial Affairs