

Providing Support Services – Sexual Misconduct

Summary

Board of Regents policy on providing support services to victims of sexual misconduct.

Purpose

To provide guidance on providing support services to victims of sexual misconduct.

Policy

4.1.7.4 Support Services

Once an individual makes a complaint, or receives notice that a complaint has been made against him or her, that individual should receive information about support services, such as counseling, advocacy, housing assistance, academic support, disability services, health and mental services, and legal assistance, as is available at their respective institutions.

Available support services should also be listed on the institution's Title IX website.
