

Repetition of Courses for Credit

Summary

Certain courses may be repeated for credit.

Purpose

This policy explains the situations where courses may be repeated for credit, as well as repeat credit and forfeiture of credit.

Policy

Repeat credit. Certain courses may be repeated for credit. To determine if a course may be repeated for credit, refer to the course description in this catalog.

Forfeiture of credit. Students repeating a course for which credit has already been earned either at Columbus State University or by transfer of credits from another institution forfeit the previous credit in that course (except in the case of courses that may be repeated for credit). The student's final grade in the course will be the one made on repetition (even if the previous grade is higher). After earning a baccalaureate degree at Columbus State University, a student will forfeit credit earned for courses taken as repeats after graduation (except in the case of courses that may be repeated for credit).

Related USG Policy

3.8.1 General

Last Update

5/9/17

Responsible Authority

Registrar's Office