6.26 Application for Discretionary Review

Any University System of Georgia (USG) student or employee in the ~~University System~~ aggrieved by a final decision of the ~~President of a University System of Georgia~~ USG institution may apply to the University System Office of Legal Affairs (“USO Legal Affairs”) for a review of the decision subject to the parameters set forth below. Review of the decision is not a matter of right, but is within the sound discretion of USO Legal Affairs. USO Legal Affairs may issue guidelines governing the process for review. If granted, the discretionary review shall be limited to the record from the institutional appeal process. ~~Nothing in this policy shall be construed to extend to any party substantive or procedural rights not required by federal or state law. This policy shall not be construed to extend to any party any expectation of employment, admission, or additional due process rights. This policy is not part of the due process rights afforded to students or employees of the University System; those rights have been fully afforded upon the decision of the President. The Board of Regents reserves the right to change this policy at any time and to make such changes effective retroactively to any pending application.~~

Applications from USG students are permitted for final institution decisions other than decisions on admissions (including program admissions), residency, student grades, and traffic citations, as the final decision on those matters rests with the President of the institution at which the appeal is heard. Applications from USG employees are limited to instances in which an employee is terminated, demoted, or otherwise disciplined in a manner that results in a loss of pay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an application may be reviewed if (1) the record suggests that a miscarriage of justice might reasonably occur if the application is not reviewed; or, (2) the record suggests that the institutional decision, if not reviewed, might reasonably have detrimental and system-wide significance.

Each application for review shall be submitted in writing to USO Legal Affairs within a period of twenty 20 calendar days following the final institution decision of the President. USO Legal Affairs shall determine whether the application for review shall be granted. USO Legal Affairs may, at in its discretion refer a matter for mediation, arbitration, reconsideration, or evaluation of settlement options. deny the application for review or refer the application to If an application for discretionary review is granted, a Committee composed of the following USO administrators or a designee of each administrator shall review the final institution decision: the chief legal officer, who shall serve as the Chair of the Committee; or his or her designee, the chief academic officer or his or her designee, the chief operating officer; the chief human resources officer; or his or her designee, and any other person or persons deemed appropriate by the Committee. USO Legal Affairs may issue guidelines governing the process for review. Upon referral, the Committee shall review the application and take any action that it deems appropriate.

The decisions of the USO Legal Affairs and the Committee shall be final and binding for all purposes. There shall be no recourse to the Chancellor or the Board of Regents from such decision; provided, however, that the Board of Regents' Committee on Organization and Law retains the authority to make an exception to this policy in its discretion. USO Legal Affairs shall periodically report to the Committee on Organization and Law Committee regarding applications for discretionary review filed and their dispositions.

Nothing in this policy shall be construed to extend to any party substantive or procedural rights not required by federal or state law or any expectation of employment, admission, or additional due process rights. This policy is not part of due process rights afforded to students or employees of the University System; any such rights have been fully afforded upon the final institution decision. The Board of Regents reserves the right to change this policy at any time and to make such changes effective retroactively to any pending application.

4.7 Student Appeals

Student appeals of final decisions of University System of Georgia institutions are governed by the Board of Regents' Policy on Application for Discretionary Review.

Final judgment on all appeals regarding admissions (including program admissions), residency, student grades, and traffic citations rests with the President of the institution at which the appeal is heard. Any University System student aggrieved by a final decision of the President of an institution, other than those stated above, may apply to the Board's Office of Legal Affairs for a review of the decision, in accordance with the Board of Regents' Policy on Applications for Discretionary Review; provided, however, that an application may be reviewed if (1) the record suggests that a miscarriage of ~~justice might reasonably occur if the application is not reviewed; or, (2) the record suggests that the institutional decision, if not reviewed, might reasonably have detrimental and system-wide significance.~~

8.2.21 Employment Appeals

Employee appeals of final decisions of University System of Georgia institutions are governed by the Board of Regents' Policy on Application for Discretionary Review.

~~Applications from University System employees for Board of Regents' review of presidential decisions shall be limited to instances in which an employee is terminated, demoted, or otherwise disciplined in a manner which results in a loss of pay. Any University System employee aggrieved by a final decision of the President of an institution, other than those stated above, may apply to the University System Office of Legal Affairs for a review of the decision, in accordance with the Board of Regents' Policy on Applications for Discretionary Review; provided, however, that an application may be reviewed if (1) the record suggests that a miscarriage of justice might reasonably occur if the application is not reviewed, or (2) the record suggests that the institutional decision, if not reviewed, might reasonably have detrimental and system-wide significance.~~
