
Government Documents Circulation

Many federal government documents may be borrowed by students, staff, and faculty of Columbus State University with their CSU ID. Members of the community may also check out government documents with a Friends of the Library membership card. See the Libraries Circulation Policy for more information.

The Georgia State documents may be used in the library only. Photocopiers and scanners are available. Some Georgia State documents may have an electronic version. Check the Libraries' catalog for more information.