
Music Library

The CSU Music Library, a branch of CSU Libraries, is located on the first floor of the Schwab School of Music in the RiverCenter for the Performing Arts. As the largest collection of music-related media materials, scores, books, and journals in the Columbus area, the Music Library serves not only the specialized needs of the CSU School of Music, but also the needs of alumni, area musicians, music educators, community members, and students of all ages wishing to take private and group lessons in the Schwab School of Music Preparatory Division.

Two-hour street parking is available nearby and a parking garage is located opposite the Broadway entrance.

Non-CSU visitors are asked to sign the guest log at the Music Library Service Desk. Current picture I.D. is required to use equipment and media.

Resources

Grove Music Online

Grove Music Online is the world's premier online music encyclopedia, offering comprehensive coverage of music, musicians, music-making, and music scholarship.

JSTOR

JSTOR contains indexes and full-text articles covering a variety of disciplines.

Collection Formats

The Music Library collection consists of books, scores, sheet music, periodicals, compact discs, LPs, CD ROMs, videocassettes, DVDs, analog cassettes, software, circulating copies of selected School of Music recordings, and access to a myriad of electronic resources via GALILEO, institutional subscriptions, and the Internet.

The collection covers a wide array of musical styles, periods, and genres, though the focus of the collection is to support the music curriculum of the university. Music materials represented in microform, the Government Documents collection, and the Archives are located in the main library, as are some reference materials and cross-disciplinary resources.
