

Welcome to Columbus, Georgia

Big opportunity in a genuine community Where We Do Amazing

Here in Columbus, Georgia, you'll find the energy of a growing city paired with the warmth of a close-knit community. Explore a thriving arts scene, experience outdoor adventures, discover local restaurants and gathering spaces, and connect with internships and career opportunities across industries. What you learn on campus extends into a city that's ready to help you launch what's next.

Get busy!

Whether you love hiking, biking, or simply being outdoors, Columbus offers miles of scenic trails and beautiful parks. For thrill seekers, whitewater rafting and zip lining along the Chattahoochee River deliver unforgettable experiences. Add in shopping, sports, fitness facilities, and entertainment venues, and you'll always find something that fits your pace.

Get going!

Be inspired at the renowned National Infantry Museum or experience the visual and performing arts at the RiverCenter for the Performing Arts and the Columbus Museum. Spend time outdoors at Providence Canyon State Park or visit F.D. Roosevelt State Park. Just 100 miles away, Atlanta offers even more cultural, professional, and entertainment opportunities — making Columbus the perfect place to stay grounded while staying connected.

Get hungry!

From Southern comfort food and award-winning barbecue to globally inspired cuisine, Columbus offers a dining scene as diverse as its community. Local coffee shops, chef-driven restaurants, and student favorites make it easy to gather with friends, celebrate milestones, or simply try something new.

Get to it!

Columbus comes alive through the arts, music, and community festivals. Enjoy Broadway shows and concerts at the RiverCenter, outdoor concerts and market days in Uptown, local art showcases, and seasonal food truck festivals. With events happening year-round, there's something memorable to attend.
