
Parents & Family Connection

At Columbus State University, your student can pursue his/her intellectual and social growth safely and freely while obtaining a first-class education. One of our top priorities here at Columbus State is to ensure that parents feel if they are a part of the CSU community at every step. We're dedicated to partnering with you to make your student's experience here at CSU as successful and rewarding as possible.

Whether you have a prospective or current student, we encourage you to explore and get involved in many of our programs and activities designed to help you advance your students experience while here at CSU.
