What is Servant Leadership at Columbus State University?

Servant leadership was adopted as one of the University's six core values in 2009.

At CSU, Servant Leadership is defined as:

“Effective, ethical leadership through empowerment and service.”

To help our students, staff, faculty practice servant leadership, we encourage our campus community to make a commitment to demonstrate the following behaviors:

1. I will be Inclusive.
2. I will be Humble.
3. I will be Self-Aware.
4. I will be Authentic.
5. I will have Foresight.
6. I will be a Visionary.
7. I will build Community.
8. I will Empower Others.
9. I will Develop Others.
10. I will Encourage Others.
