General Information

- The use of facilities in the Davidson Center may be scheduled through the facilities coordinator in room 271. Requests should be made in advance to ensure the availability of the area desired and to allow adequate time for scheduling special arrangements or services.
- Requests for use of facilities in the building imply that the individual or organization agrees to accept responsibility for the designated space and to abide by existing university policies and regulations.
- Users of the center are encouraged to keep the facilities clean and to protect the building and its contents from unnecessary abuse. In certain areas eating or drinking is prohibited.
- Food service catering for events must be arranged with the cafeteria manager. Outside catering is prohibited unless approved by the cafeteria manager.

Bookstore

The bookstore is operated by Follett Higher Education Group. Columbus State University is one of more than 800 colleges and universities with bookstores managed by Follett. The partnership insures a high quality of customer service, reliable textbook delivery, and increased availability of used textbooks.

The bookstore offers a textbook rental program designed to save students a significant amount of money on their textbooks.

Students may sell their current edition textbooks back to the bookstore all year round. The peak purchase times are the first and last weeks of each semester. Books that are needed for store stock the following semester will be purchased at 50% of the student's purchase price. Books not being used on campus will be purchased at the prevailing market price.

Students are also able to order clothing, supplies, as well as textbooks online at the CSU Bookstore twenty four hours a day. These items can be shipped to the student or picked up in the bookstore during normal business hours. The CSU bookstore offers a wide variety of general supplies, clothing and gift items for all occasions.

Graduation regalia, a selection of high quality diploma frames, and non-imprinted graduation announcements are available for purchase at the CSU Bookstore. Personalized graduation announcements are available for ordering. Class Rings may be purchased from the CSU Bookstore. Your ring is unique to the students and alumni of Columbus State University. The CSU class ring is a symbol of pride and dedication in earning your degree from the university. Periodic "Ring Days" will be scheduled so that students and alumni can speak directly with a sales representative.

RiverPark Campus Bookstore

The bookstore on the RiverPark campus will offer many of the same services as the main campus store but will cater to the classes being taught on the RiverPark campus. In addition there is a student art gallery attached to the bookstore containing CSU student art work for sale. Students may visit the bookstore to learn about available items and store hours.

Food Services

Cougar Dining Program

Columbus State University's Dining Program, referred to as Cougar Dining Services, is operated by ARAMARK Corp.

Cougar Dining Services offers a wide variety of choices on campus. The residential dining is an innovative culinary concept called RFoC (Real Food on Campus). In addition, the main campus has a Food Court, Einstein Bros. Bagels, The POD, and a Market & Deli (The Den) located in Uptown Columbus.

Cougar's Caf

All you care to eat for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Watch the preparation of your made-to-order meal or venture to one of our home-style stations. Favorites from the grill, deli, or salad bar are always there for you too. The Caf is the perfect place to dine and catch up with friends at Davidson Student Center.

Cougar Food Court

Feeling the rush? No worries. Utilize your Cougar Cash at The Cougar Food Court conveniently located near your classes. Enjoy your favorites from Chick-Fil-A or build your own custom burger at Burger Studio. Go ahead, grab some groceries and household products from Cougar's Corner or just hang with friends.

Einstein Bros. Bagels

Relax and recharge on campus at Einstein Bros. Bagels. Comfy seating, wireless Internet connections, and a full range of delicious and aromatic coffees, light snacks, and desserts await you. We have two great locations: Howard Hall & Schwob Memorial Library (express).

P.O.D. Express (Provisions On Demand)

Get the stuff you want, when you want it, right here on campus. The P.O.D., located in the glass corridor between Schuster and Davidson, offers a selection of snacks, beverages and other grab and go items in a fast and easy kiosk. Java City, is also located at the P.O.D., providing that early morning coffee when you need it the most.

Catering

A full range of catering services including text-sm coffee breaks, parties, and full service black tie receptions are also available for on or off campus. Any budget can be accommodated, with no function being too large or too text-sm.

The Den

RiverPark's Market and Deli. Need groceries? Looking for a bite to eat? Need a break? The Den is a cozy spot available on our RiverPark Campus. Sandwiches, salads, and hot meals are available 7 days a week. 1009 Broadway, Uptown Columbus.
